

PAVING PLANS ARE APPROVED

Council Sets July 29 for Hearing 5th Street Remonstrators and Hopes to Rush it Through

ESTIMATED COST IS $13,000

Erection of Band Stand and Appropriation for Concerts in Memorial Park Considered

An improvement resolution, approving the plans and specifications for the paving of Fifth street, was presented and passed at a special meeting of the city council held Wednesday night, and the plans of paving the street will be pushed forward at once.

The councilmen set July 29 as the time for hearing remonstrators, but they contend that there will not be enough remonstrators present to offer resistance. The street to be paved extended from the west side of Harrison street to the west side of Perkins street, a distance of three blocks.

According to the law, no one can remonstrate except resident property owners. Most of the residents who live along the street own their own property and are favorable toward the improvement. There is a considerable amount of property that faces north and south streets, but the law sets out that these persons live on the street on which the main entrance to their dwelling is established, and that a person living on a corner lot cannot live legally on two streets.

The estimated cost for paving the street with asphalt is said to be in the neighborhood of $13,000, and an effort to have the street paved at once will be made.

While the councilmen were in session last night, several other matters came up. The discussion on the bookkeeping system used at the water and light plant was taken up, and on account of recommendations of the field examiners for the state board of accounts, the councilmen decided to install a modern system of books in the plant, which will enable the superintendent to have a complete check at all times. The requirements will probably add a stock keeper and a book keeper, because of the vast amount of work that will be caused in keeping a set of books, designed for that purpose.

A contract with Spradling and Carter of Indianapolis, expert ac-
system to be used at the plant will be devised by them.

When the state board examiners were here recently, they found that the plant lacked a system in keeping a check on stock and equipment. No irregularities were found, but the city was advised that in order to keep the business in a better condition in the future, it would be advisable to install books.

The city will go into the refreshment stand business at Memorial park. A stand, not to cost in excess of $250, will be built at once and refreshments will be available at all times. The stand will be in charge of park custodian Sampson and Andy Stiffler, and the city will share in one-half of the profits, to be applied to the park fund.

The proposition of building a band stand was discussed and the councilmen are in favor of erecting a pavilion in the park in order to accommodate band concerts. An appropriation for weekly band concerts for the city band is being considered.

The committee was instructed to ascertain the cost of building a band stand, and report on the matter at the regular meeting of the council next Tuesday night.

The question concerning the bond issue of $30,000 which was remonstrated against by taxpayers and which is now before the commission, was discussed. The city attorney is reasonably sure that the issue will be granted, and in order to carry out the plans of expending a portion of the money for the extension of a water line from the race, it will be necessary to get permission from the traction line to tap the race.

It is proposed to extend a large water line from the race down through an alley in the central part of the business district. At intervals, pumper hydrants will be placed, so that in case of fire, the pumpers from the fire station can be stationed at the various plugs and provide am-

GASOLINE THIEVES ACTIVE

Tap Tank in Rear of Telephone Co., Twice Within Few Weeks

For the second time within a few weeks, a gasoline thief has tapped the tank belonging to the Rushville Co-operative telephone company located at the rear of their building.
The large tank is buried under the ground, and the robbers on both occasions have broken the padlock that is fastened to the intake pipe. A small pump must be used in order to force the gasoline from the small pipe, according to George Davis, manager of the telephone company.

The large padlock was smashed
last night, and broken in two parts.
It is not known how much gasoline was taken. The telephone officials today purchased another heavy lock, which they hope will withstand the attacks of a crow bar.

Ed White, Assistant Attorney General of Indiana, Discusses Funda-mentals of Government

Religious Liberty, Habeas Corpus and Tax Limit Emphasized as Constitutional Guarantees

Fundamentals of government were discussed in an informal way by Ed White of Indianapolis, assistant attorney general of Indianapolis, before the Kiwanis club today noon.

Mr. White, who was a boyhood friend of Robert E. Mansfield in Muncie, was introduced by Mr. Mansfield in a reminiscent vein, the local Kiwanians recalling that Mr. White was always right fundamentally.

"You men as business and professional men know," the speaker said,
"that there are certain rules or conduct to follow if you want to succeed. The same is true in government and these we call fundamentals."

He referred to the haste with which some states change their basic law, in comparison with the way in which Indiana has stood by the fundamentals in government. Changing of the constitution was once tried in Indiana, he recalled, a committee attempting to do it over night.

date," he continued, "because it was born in 1851. They were willing to do away with certain guarantees of liberty because of the momentary belief that the constitution stood in the way of something some official or body of officials wished to do."

Mr. White pointed out that the constitution is something that prevents from being made rules that
activities of the bar association of the state and nation in observing Constitution Week and then set forth a few reasons for a constitution.

Mr. White emphasized the tax limit fixed by the constitution, which prevents confiscation of property, the writ of habeas corpus and religious liberty.

"There are primary principles," he asserted, "I don't suppose I should be talking about them here, but rather before school children, because you know what they are. If a new constitution were adopted tomorrow, it would be practically the present one rewritten word for word."

"I don't want to discuss all of these features of the constitution but I do want to discuss one of them briefly—religious liberty. Everyone knows the federal and state constitution guarantees religious liberty."

Mr. White read excerpts from the constitution to show that no man shall be compelled to support any religious belief and that religion shall not be a test for public office. He recalled the battles of the past in Indiana to prevent public school money from going to parochial schools as an example of the guaranty that the constitution gives.

"Any organization that is not willing to accord to a neighbor the right to worship as he pleases is one that should be studied before entering it," he asserted.

"No trouble is going to come to us because of violation of these rules of conduct, but the public must be vigilant to see that they are not violated."

A RETURN ENGAGEMENT

Rushville Today to get "Local Col-

Judge Rufus Hinshaw of Newcastle was in this city today looking over the premises involved in the law suit venue from the local court to Henry county, in which Amos Baxter is plaintiff and the Big Four railroad company, the defendant.

The damage suit is one of a dozen venued to that city, in which the prop-
portion of the city seek $1,000 damages in each case. From the railroad for constructing a bridge over Hodges branch, which they allege is not large enough to permit water to flow during an excessive rain.

The complaint of Mr. Baxter was given a hearing first and evidence was heard last month at Newcastle.
Judge Hinshaw desired to look over the situation, and he came down today for that purpose. The attorneys will gather in Newcastle Friday afternoon for the final arguments in the case, and as the judge has looked over the branch, he can better understand the arguments and evidence of the various witnesses.

Judge Hinshaw was accompanied here today by Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle, who is one of the Supreme court judges of Indiana and whose court is in vacation.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE CLOSES AT WESTPORT

Concluding Program of Connorsville
M. E. District Meeting Includes
Indianapolis Pastor's Address

REPORTS ON THE CONFERENCE

The annual conference of the Connorsville district, Indiana conference, of the Methodist Episcopal church, closed at Westport, Decatur county, Wednesday afternoon, with an address by the Rev. Edwin Wesley Dunlavey, D. D., pastor of Roberts Park
M. E. church, Indianapolis.

The conference opened Tuesday afternoon and sessions were held Tuesday night and Wednesday morning and afternoon. St. Paul's church of this city was represented by the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Hargett, and
O. P. Wamsley and Dr. J. M. Walker, the district superintendent of this city, also attended.

Mr. Wamsley was in charge of the music and was one of six candidates to preach who took examinations during the conference.

Dr. Walker made a report of his six year term as superintendent at the initial session. He will conclude his work in this district next September and will receive a new assignment at the conference, on account of a ruling of the general conference providing that no district superintendent shall serve more than six years.

Ernest Clyde Wareing, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, addressed the conference Tuesday night, speaking on the subject,
The Rev. R. R. Cross of Milroy delivered a sermon at the Tuesday afternoon session and the Rev. E. H.
Omohundro preached Wednesday morning. Reports of the general conference by Dr. Walker, Dr. J. W. Mc-Fall of Connorsville and T. W. Robinson were features of the morning program. Several local persons attended the conference sessions.

BOND LETTING HARKS BACK TO THE OLD DAYS

High Premiums Offered For Shannahan Issue of $24,840 Recalls Days Before The War

GOES TO CITY TRUST COMPANY

When bids on the bond issue for the Shannahan road in Rushville township were opened in the county treasurer's office Wednesday afternoon, the days before the war were recalled, because of the high premiums offered for the issue.

It was sold to the City Trust company of Indianapolis for $809.50 and accrued interest. The bonds will draw five percent interest and will run for ten years. The par value of the issue is $24,840.

Other bidders, all of Indianapolis,
and their offers were: Thomas D.
Sheerin company, $606; Fletcher
Savings and Trust Company, $777.77;
the Fletcher American bank, $755.60;
J. F. Wild and company, $803.75;
Meyer-Kiser bank, $707.75.

The bonds were sold only after the battle to prevent their sale had been carried to the state board of tax commissioners. A hearing was conducted here and the state board found for the petitioners.

once, the contract having been let before the remonstrance against the bond issue was filed. The material used will be crushed gravel.

Where He Took First Communion,
Calvin, Jr.'s Funeral is Held

North Hampton, Mass., July 10—Funeral services for Calvin Coolidge Jr., were held today in the little brick church where he took his first communion. The services were short
plain folks who sat crowded in the back pews heard it with misty eyes.

Dr. Kenneth Wells, pastor of the Edwards Congregational church, conducted the funeral. Throughout the service, Mrs. Coolidge, veiled and dressed in black, preserved her composure. North Hampton's tribute was unrestrained. Dr. Wells paid to the dead boy the tribute of a neighbor and a former spiritual adviser.

The congregation remained as Mrs.
Coolidge passed out on the arm of the president followed by her son John and his grandfather. Then in the slow march the old friends of North Hampton passed before the open casket high upon the altar. The presidential party left at 10:30 a. m.

BOYS DIVIDED INTO 2 GROUPS

One of Distinct Advantages to Rush County Camp at Turkey Run

YOUNGER GROUP TO BE FIRST

Their Camp Will Open August 4 to 18—Brief Outline of High Spots
of Trip

One of the distinct advantages of the Boys' Camp at Turkey Run State Park over other boys' camps is the division of the boys into an older and younger boys group. The two groups will go at different times and it will thus be possible for them to enjoy the same advantages while there.

The younger group will be made up from boys about nine to twelve or thirteen years of age. This group will go on Monday August the 4 and will return on Monday, August 18. The older group will contain boys from about twelve or thirteen to sixteen or seventeen years of age. Tomorrow's paper will contain a list of the boys who have already signed up for both camps.

Following is a brief outline of the
regular routine of swimming, athletic
in addition to this outline.

Monday—Start for camp, leaving at about 5:30 a. m. Arrive at Turkey Run at about noon. Unpack and straighten up. Supper at camp.

Tuesday—Trip to Rocky Hollow,
the most beautiful canon in the Park.

Wednesday—Trip to Turkey Run
Hollow, a very spectacular canon.

Thursday—Explore in and about the Coal Mine.

Friday—Bear Hollow and the De-vil's Ice Box, very historical places.

Saturday—Night trip through Gypsy Gulch with flashlights.

Sunday—Visitor's day for folks
to the Little Old Log Church.

Monday—Explore the old mill built in the solid rock by the early pioneers. Visit the old hermit's home.

Wednesday—Shades of Death, Lover's Leap, Indian Lookout and Trails, Bridal Veil, Falls, Springs of Health, of Beauty and of Youth, De-vil's Fireplace and Punchbowl. Box-ball and boating in the afternoon.

Thursday—Devil's Backbone, State
Game Preserve with many animals.

Friday—Sunset Point. Visit other camps. The first Pioneer Cabin.

Saturday—Buzzards Nest and Indian Lookout. Party at night. Games, dancing and music. Refreshments.

Singing and yells at the hotels at night.

Monday—Break camp and leave at about 8:30 a. m. Overland trip home.
This same outline will be used in both camps.

4-YEAR-OLD BOY DIES

Charles, four-year-old son of Mr.
and Mrs. Charles Wolfe, died last night about eight o'clock at the family home in Mays, death resulting from a few days illness with stomach and bowel trouble. The little boy is survived by his parents, a twin sister, Maxine and another brother, Eugene Wolfe. A half sister and two half brothers also survive. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at the home in Mays, and burial will be made in the cemetery at Brookville.

Democratic Ticket of Davis and Bry-

Senator Walsh and E. T. Meredith
Would Not Accept Nomination for Second Place on Ticket

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

United Press Headquarters, Waldorf Hotel, New York, July 10—John W. Davis of West Virginia for president and Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska for vice president.

That Democratic ticket, coupling
the conservative east with the progressive west, was brought out of the most bitterly contested convention in political history at 2:25 a. m. today.

The nomination of the Nebraska governor was forced by a coterie of Democratic leaders after he had been selected personally by Davis as his running mate. It came on the first ballot, furnishing a curious anti-climax to the first ballot over the presidential nomination which ended in a compromise on the 103rd ballot late yesterday afternoon.

Selection of Bryan was made only after the delegates had been twice turned down by prospective candidates for the vice presidency.

Senator Walsh of Montana, Davis'
first choice, formally refused the offer, stating he could best serve his party in the senate. Edwin T. Meredith of Iowa refused to run with Davis on the ground that he was the conservative to appeal to the agricultural west.

Davis was unwilling to accept any of the nine candidate nominated formally. A recess of one hour was called at midnight while Davis went into conference with leaders at the historic Democratic rendezvous, the Manhattan Club, across the street from Madison Square Garden.

Chairman Cordell Hall, Tom Taggart, Senator Pat Harrison and other leaders, bare-headed, rushed back to the Garden to get Bryan's acceptance.
He met them at the door and speedily gave his consent. It was necessary to place him in nomination and Harry Fleaharty was rounded up to name
him. Bryan himself told his sponsor to make the speech "short and snappy". Fleaharty complied and the balloting began.

Worn out by two weeks of bickering and three hours of oratory during the evening, hundreds of the delegates had departed for home. The
than 500 spectators remained of the vast crowd that jammed the galleries to give Governor Al Smith a thunderous ovation and Davis a cordial welcome.

Chairman Walsh had turned the gavel over to Representative Barkley of Kentucky, who had great difficulty in controlling the crowd after the balloting got under way. But the din that marked the earlier sessions was gone. Voices rang out clear and sharp in the huge hall.

Humorists made the balloting more difficult. They voted for men and women whose names were unfamiliar to the tattered clerks.

Bryan got away slowly until the word was passed that he was Davis' choice.

After casting half of the Illinois vote for Mayor Hylan of New York as a compliment, George E. Brennan of Illinois led the switching which ended in Bryan amassing a total of 739 votes, more than the necessary two thirds. He was followed by Franklin D. Roosevelt who cast New York's 90 votes solidly for Bryan.

Then Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City whipped his delegation into

George L. Berry of Tennessee, soldier-labor candidate, finished with 204 when the switching ended. But the soldier labor crowd, aided by a rowdy bunch the police finally ejected from the hall, kept up a constant cry for Berry. Although Col. Alvin Crawley former commander of the
Texas, he finished with 16 votes.

Bennett Clark, son of the late Champ Clark of Missouri, had a total of 41 votes and Mrs. Leroy Springs of South Carolina 18. Others who stuck to the end were Governor Glynn

God loves the good:—Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.— Psalm 73:1.

On Being Thrifty

It is often said of a person that he or she is thrifty. Immediately we think of that person who makes good use of money and material possessions.

But that does not by any means constitute all there is to thrift.

health thrift—is just as essential.

Forty-two million gainfully employed men and women of the United States lose the labor of one million workers each year from sickness, a loss equal to 300,000,000 working days annually.

It has been computed that the time lost every year to the nation through sickness of its workers is three times greater than all of the working days gained annually through immigration.

illness are in addition to 227,600,000 working days the United States department of agriculture estimates are lost annually through industrial accidents.

Statisticians have not been able to check the dollars lost in wages annually because of sickness, but inasmuch as the wage loss from industrial accidents exceeds $1,000,000,000, the financial loss from sickness must be far in excess of that sum.

Even health thrift is related to financial thrift, because sickness causes loss of time, which is worth money.

Much ill health is the result of carelessness. Guard the reservoir of your physical strength as you would your home or your life's savings.

Men of strong vitality are tempted to overdue because they are by nature energetic. An outstanding American recently boasted that he works almost continually, with the exception of about four hours each night when he sleeps.

There can be nothing but admiration for a man of this sort, but sooner or later nature will refuse to be abused. Collapse is inevitable and the man's usefulness will be over years before it would have been, had he observed temperate habits.

When you think of thrift, think in terms of health as well as wealth, because there can be no real thrift that does not include care of the health.

Pushing Ahead

It is an anomaly of American life that success is accepted as commonplace, while sensational failure is described in all of its sensational details.

When the 'round-the-world' army aviators started to encircle the globe, they met with the opposition of the elements which they could not overcome and which caused the commander to turn back.

But because of the smoothness with which the intrepid conquerors of the air are progressing toward their goal, we seldom ever see their names in print.

Yet they are overcoming almost insurmountable difficulties every day. With persistency and unflinching courage, they are pushing ahead.

The crews of the three planes have made their way half way around the earth without serious accident of any kind.

The flight may be robbed of its alluring sensationalism, but the steadfast persistence of the fliers challenges the admiration of everybody, especially American citizens, because they represent the crusading spirit of our ancestors, whose courage and fearlessness carved the cradle of liberty in the western hemisphere.

Saturday, July 10, 1909

Frank Wilson received a cablegram
this morning from his daughter Aileen, who together with Miss Mattie B. Lacy, a teacher in Manual Training High school in Indianapolis, left recently for a tour of Europe. The "underwater" message was sent from Liverpool.

Dr. V. W. Tevis will preach in the morning at St. Paul's M. E. church and union services will be held at this church in the evening. No other service will be held in the church until the decorators have finished with their work.

Wardner Wyatt, who is suffering with an attack of the jaundice, is slightly improved today.

Connorsville is determined on having some pretty girls to take up their abode there that they might stop the general exodus of Connorsville swains who travel to other cities in quest of parlor amusements. A few days ago an account was given of the establishment of a "beauty factory." Now comes a better idea. A classical school for girls will be launched near Connorsville by Eastern Women who have leased the beautiful Elmhurst farm, on the south edge of the city.

The Palace motion picture theatre has changed hands, the deal being consummated yesterday. Harry Meredith, who started the place last fall, sold it to C. E. Clifford of Fayette county.

Miss May Sweetman, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Sexton sanitarium recently, has been removed to her home in West First street and is improving.

Pearl Taylor, who was injured Wednesday by a falling refrigerator, is recovering and will be able to be up in a few days.
He will not lose the use of his lower limbs as was at first thought.

A party composed of the following people enjoyed a picnic along the banks of Whitewater yesterday: Mr. and Mrs.
A. W. Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holden, Rev. Hetrick and family, Mrs. Lifford Stiers, Ben Staples and Leslie McCauley.

Mrs. Link Gary entertained the Bridge club at her home in North Harrison street yesterday.

Scott Conde, who has been working in a restaurant at Newcastle, has resigned his position and returned to his home in this city yesterday.

Wayne Wellman went to Richmond today to get a new piece for his threshing machine. This is the twenty-ninth year that Mr. Wellman has threshed in the same company.

Dr. Waltermire of Manilla contemplates a short course at a Racine, Wis., college of surgery.

Lewis Hiner returned last night from a visit with relatives in Anderson.

The Hodge-Podge
By a Paragrapher with a Soul

Some wind instruments are hard to blow, but few people ever seem to have any trouble blowing their own horns.

Sometimes platform builders have more hammers than nails.

Pared government expenses means that the nation will not be impaired.

The tenacity with which the delegates at the Democratic national convention clung to their candidates indicates that there is no occasion for changing the party emblem.

Some men who have never played a musical instrument have a fair sized band wagon.

One nice thing about flying around the world is that one doesn't have to pay any attention to passports or detours.

People who claim they never saw the corn grow should go out any day, about this time a year, and take a look.

Several times before the necessary two thirds was reached, motions were made to nominate Bryan by acclamation.
These suggestions were greeted by boos and hisses from the Berry supporters.

During the switching that held the hall in bedlam for half an hour, Wm.
Jennings Bryan, sitting as a delegate from Florida, voted for his brother's nomination.

The total vote was announced in silence. Governor Bryan's vote was greeted by an outburst of applause, followed by boos, hisses and cat
doors before the full list of names could be read or the motion to adjourn the convention put.

Barkley announced that Permanent Chairman Walsh was to make the formal notification speech to Davis and Temporary Chairman Harrison would notify Bryan.

The band struck up "Home Sweet Home" and the crowd trickled out into the night. The convention was ended.

too fast at th' wrong place!

Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined.

An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did.
Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., Bk-75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

You regulate
financial loss

Fires occur in spite of precautions.
Property is destroyed in spite of the fire fighters' best efforts.
But there is no "in spite of" where dependable insurance is concerned. The value of the property can be saved.

Adequate insurance is the one sure protection against financial loss through fire. Can you afford to be without it?

your visit, and acquaint yourself with the new management of an old store.

Our policy is to handle only dependable merchandise, which must give complete satisfaction. This, combined with courtesy and personal interest in each customer, will surely make your visits to this store pleasant, and well worth while.

Our Special Order Department will take care of the wants of the most fastidious dresser. Competent tailor to take your measure.

We hope you will accept our invitation,

Nervous and Irritable. By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Became Entirely Normal

Clinton, Wisconsin.—"My daughter was in a very run-down condition, and was irritable, and would cry at every little thing she was so weak and nervous. As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped me when I was a girl I gave it to her to build her up, and the results were all that we could wish for. I wish that every mother with growing girls would try it for these troubles girls often have. I had taken it myself before my girl was born, and she was one of the nicest babies any one could wish to have. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to women and girls and cannot praise it too highly." — Mrs. I. A. HOLFORD, Box 48, Clinton, Wisconsin.

Mothers can depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve their daughters of those troubles they so often have. They know from experience the value of the Vegetable Compound in the treatment of these complaints and many, like Mrs. Holford, give it to their daughters.

Gus Says:

We are still here and kicking. Just because the street is torn up out in front isn't any reason for you to think that we have gone out of business. The sidewalk is still intact.

The Young Ladies Mission Circle of the St. Paul's Methodist church was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Jesse Anderson south of the city, with a picnic lunch and program. The lunch was served on the spacious lawn of the home and was enjoyed by about twenty-five girls. Mrs. Donald Ball had charge of the program, which opened with the singing of the Circle hymn. Two readings were given by Miss Mary Ann Scholl and Miss Louise Pittman and Mrs. Ball gave a splendid talk. Miss Mary Walker, who has just returned from a trip through the East with her parents, also gave a descriptive talk of the missions she visited while on the trip. The next meeting of the Circle will be held the first Wednesday evening in August, instead of the second, on account of the Chautauqua falling on that date.

Members of Lurline Council, No. 296 are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Edna Dagler in North Harrison street tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

There is little or nothing in the ordinary four by which to measure Maxwell riding and driving results of today.

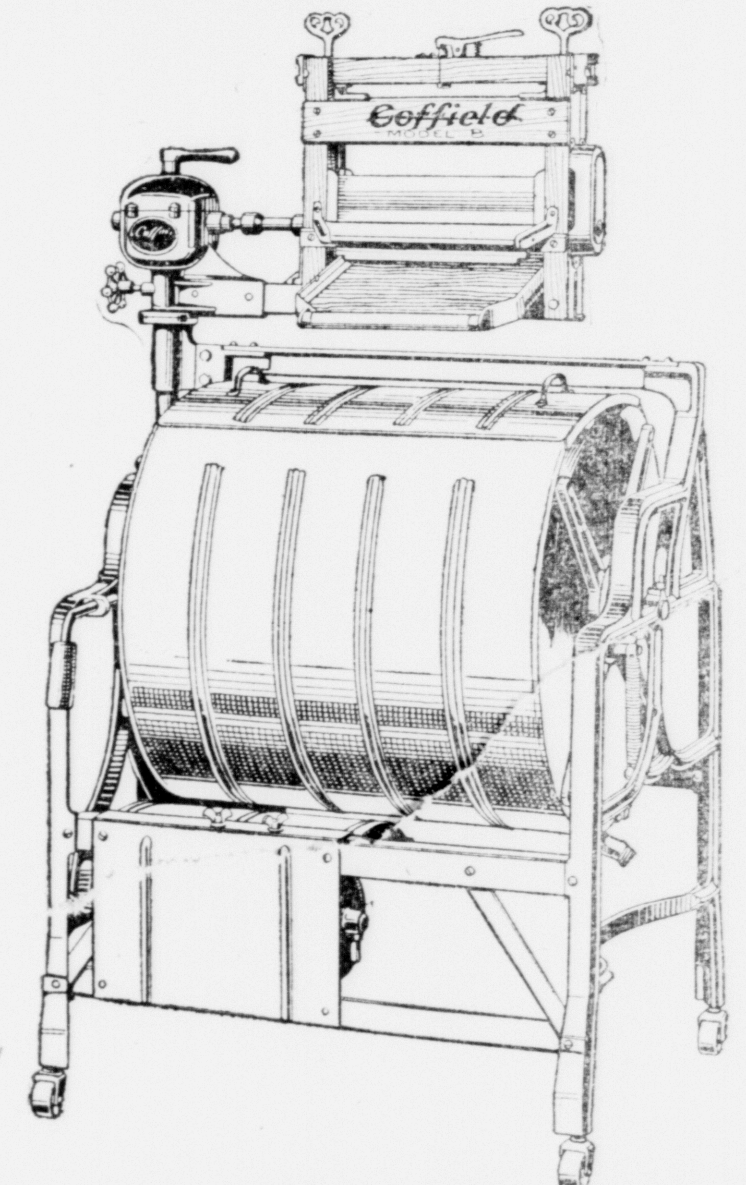

Vibration literally ceases to exist, so far as those in the car are concerned. The car rides with the ease of one twice as heavy.

There is no four in America today at anything like its price to equal the good Maxwell—and you can find that out for yourself in 30 minutes by calling on the nearest Maxwell dealer.

What every woman needs is a clothes washer that will force suds through the clothes so vigorously that they will be really clean with the least effort in the shortest time—and yet without anything in the tub that will rub and wear them.

This has been accomplished in the Coffield. The way its forceful suds action leaves every piece sweet and clean is a delight.

Just one big, round copper tub that rocks back and forth, perfectly balanced within a wonderfully designed frame.

There is nothing to oil—for the Coffield has self-lubricating, rust-proof bearings. With a Coffield, no surface oil can possibly streak your clothes.

There isn't even anything to clean. The inside of the tub cleans itself by its own water action.

$3.00 will put this washer in your home. Balance on easy terms.

SANDE MAY QUIT AMERICAN TURF

By FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 10—Unless a change is made in the Jockey Club rules, this may be the last season that Earl Sande, justly popular rider for the Ranocoe Stables, will be seen in action on the American turf.

It is to be hoped that some change will be made, for the tall youngster is the greatest jockey produced in this country—not excepting the great Tod Sloan—and it would be a shame to lose him.

The trouble is that Sande has great difficulty in making the low weight required of riders on our turf. Earl has to take Turkish baths and undergo all sorts of nerve racking and often physically weakening exercise and torture to get down to the 116 pounds so often required of him.

Sande would not quit riding if he had to give it up over here. He is the recipient of more flattering offers from the other side, especially from England, where they want him to ride. The scale of weights in the British Isles and on the Continent is considerably higher than here, and Sande would undoubtedly win much fame in Europe.

The former South Dakota cowboy has already shown that he can give Steve Donoghue, who, until this year, was England's premier jock, cards and spades and beat him riding any day in the week.

Some say it is Mrs. Sande who is raising the chief objection to Earl's continuing to ride here. She believes it is injuring his health to constantly subject him to the severe strain of taking off weight.

Of course, there will be many races in this country at weights suited to the Ranocoe Stables' star rider, but riding but once in a while would rob Sande of the "feel" of the game and deprive him of the popularity he has so justly earned.

Aside from his ability to boot home winners, young Sande is distinguished—and the word is used advisedly—for his gentlemanly manner and good sportsmanship. Among men, be they stewards, owners, trainers, or riders, who have brought credit to the American turf, Sande ranks high.

This tow-headed lad rode his first winner seven years ago, down in New Orleans, and has been kicking them home ever since. There are lots of race fans who back Earl, not his mount. And they're right oftener than they're wrong.

One of those who would be sorriest to see Sande leave is Sam C. Hildreth, trainer and part owner of the Ranocoe outfit. Much of the credit for Zev's great year in 1923, and for the big purses the stable has been acquiring of late, goes to Sande.

American riders, especially Sloan, Frankie O'Neill, Everett Hayes and Frank Keogh, have been tremendously successful on European turf. Sande is considered their peer. He should turn out one of the most successful riders of all time, if he goes.

Sande is cool, alert, confident, an excellent judge of pace, as pretty a rider to watch in action as ever threw a leg up. His is the riding genius that enables him to shoot through the ruck at the critical moment, or to bring his mount to the finish with a rush that won't be denied.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's hero: Johnny Most of the White Sox. He busted out two helpful homers as his team nosed out the world's champions 8-6.

The Red Sox won both ends of a double-header from St. Louis 5-4 and 5-0, but couldn't get out of seventh place.

Cleveland beat Baugartner and Rommell and took both games of their double bill with the A's 3-1 and 6-3. The league leading Senators increased their advantage over the Yanks to a game and a half by breaking even with Detroit, losing 5 to 2 and winning 4 to 2

Pittsburgh's winning streak came a cropper when the Braves hammered three Pirate twirlers for 6-3 victory. The Reds rallied in the eighth, scored five runs on seven hits and beat the Phillies 6-3.

"Trilby" Greatest Romance

The significance of Da Maurier's "Trilby" as one of the greatest romances of all time prompted keen anticipation on the part of this reviewer, when it was made known that Richard Walton Tolly, himself perhaps the foremost of our contemporary playwright-producers, had dedicated himself to the task of immortalizing it on the screen as a First National attraction. Thus it was that we visited the Castle last evening, prepared to witness a masterly production.

We were not disappointed. Almost at the outset we realized that "Trilby" had been brought to life, its fascinating characters made real. A Trilby adorable in form and feature, adorable in the odd contradictions of her nature, stood before us. A Svengali who coincided with our mental image, that sinister vagabond musician-mesmerist, long since deified in the memory by Da Maurier's word paintings, wove his spells—not only on the heroine, we opine, but on spectators as well. Here is finished artistry. A "Little Billie" whose sensitiveness vibrated from the screen; a bluff Tolly, a lovable Laird—and so it goes through the gamut of characters—realism! "Trilby" is a romantic story which has charmed readers for a decade. It was, in the early nineties, not one of the "six best sellers", but the one best—it was a furore, a sensation. While the younger generation may be less familiar with it, we wonder if they will not, for that reason, be more firmly gripped by its suspense, its change of moods, its altogether unsuspected ending. We refrain from a sketch of the plot for that reason, but commend the piece equally to those who have read the novel and those who

Last Showing of "Men"

"Men", Pola Negri's new Paramount picture, written and directed by the Russian producer, Dimitri Buchowetzki, the man who made "Peter the Great," was shown for the first time at the Princess Theatre yesterday. It's a great dramatic story of modern France, a tale of love and regeneration.

Pola plays the role of "Cleo", waitress in a shore front cafe in Marseilles. And what a role it is! Here's the Pola of the old European productions, the Pola of "Passion" and the rest, Pola in a picture that is going to make the screen world sit up and take notice—take a new interest in life. Here's Pola in her greatest role in a story with a happy ending.

Good as was "Shadows of Paris" and the other American made Negri pictures, they don't even begin to compare with "Men". Paramount calms Buchowetzki wrote the story some time ago, ten years to be exact, with Pola Negri in mind for the starring role and that time after time the occasion presented itself to picture the story with another star. But Buchowetzki waited.

Robert Frazer has the leading man's role opposite the star. Robert Edson and Joseph Swickard also have important parts. Others in the strong supporting cast of the production include Monti Collins, Gino Corrado and Edgar Norton. Paul Bern, who wrote the scenario for Ernst Lubitsch's "The Marriage Circle" made the adaptation. Alvin Wkeyoff handled the photography.

Indigestion Is Avoidable

By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

Indigestion is one of the commonest ills known to Americans. Sufferers find that nothing they can eat "agrees" with them. Practically all food produces unpleasantness and trouble.

Under chiropractic adjustments this interference is removed. Nature brings the stomach back to par and the former sufferer eats as he should. By my chiropractic health method the cause is removed—the effect follows.

Indigestion Is Gone

"For several years I had suffered with indigestion, and a year ago I developed a very severe attack. I was forced to go to bed and after three days of intense suffering we called a chiropractor, who gave me great relief. The following day I was able to go to his office and take another adjustment, continuing until I had completed a full course. I have not had an attack of indigestion since, and my general health is greatly improved, especially my nervous system." —M. Shattuck, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2029-A.

Street Remonstrators and Hopes

Erection of Band Stand and Approp-

meeting of the city council held Wednesday night, and the plans of paving
once.

kins street, a distance of three blocks.

the improvement. There is a consid-
that a person living on a corner lot,

will be made.

While the councilmen were in session last night, several other matters
for that purpose.

Carter of Indianapolis, expert ac-
be devised by them.

keep the business in a better condi-
able to install books.

$250, will be built at once and refreshments will be available at all
to the park fund.

men are in favor of erecting a pavilion in the park in order to accommo-
band is being considered.

Tuesday night.

issue of $30,000 which was remon-
which is now before the commission,
was discussed. The city attorney is
traction line to tap the race.

of the business district. At intervals,
that in case of fire, the pumps from the fire station can be stationed at the various plugs and provide authorized.

weeks, a gasoline thief has tapped the tank belonging to the Rushville
The large tank is buried under the
ground, and the robbers on both oc-
the gasoline from the small pipe, ac-
the telephone company.

last night, and broken in two parts.
day purchased another heavy lock,
attacks of a crow bar.

Ed White, Assistant Attorney General of Indiana, Discusses Funda-

Tax Limit Emphasized as Constitutional Guarantees

Fundamentals of government were
torney general of Indianapolis, before the Kiwanis club today noon.
Mr. White, who was a boyhood
friend of Robert E. Mansfield in
was always right fundamentally.

sional men know," the speaker said,
duct to follow if you want to suc-

damentals in government. Changing

way of something more official or

vents from being made rules that
a few reasons for a constitution.

Mr. White emphasized the tax limit
liberty.

"There are primary principles," he
constitution were adopted tomorrow,

knows the federal and state constitution guarantees religious liberty."

constitution gives.

suit venued from the local court to Henry county, in which Amos Baxter
company, the defendant.

The damage suit is one of a dozen
venued to that city, in which the prop-
ages in each case. From the railroad for constructing a bridge over Hud-ges branch, which they allege is not large enough to permit water to flow during an excessive rain.

was heard last month at Newcastle.
the situation, and he came down to-
of the various witnesses.

here today by Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle, who is one of the Su-
whose court is in vacation.

M. E. District Meeting Includes

norsville district, Indiana conference,
of the Methodist Episcopal church,
closed at Westport, Decatur county,
Wednesday afternoon, with an address by the Rev. Edwin Wesley Dunlavy, D. D., pastor of Robert's Park
M. E. church, Indianapolis.

afternoon and sessions were held Tuesday night and Wednesday morn-
O. P. Wamsley and Dr. J. M. Walker,
city, also attended.

to preach who took examinations during the conference.

Dr. Walker made a report of his
his work in this district next September and will receive a new assignment
ruling of the general conference pro-

the Western Christian Advocate, addressed the conference Tuesday
night, speaking on the subject,
The Rev. R. R. Cross of Milroy delivered a sermon at the Tuesday afternoon session and the Rev. E. H.

han Issue of $24,840 Recalls Days

the Shannahan road in Rushville
township were opened in the county treasurer's office Wednesday after-
miums offered for the issue.

pany of Indianapolis for $809.50 and
is $24,840.

Other bidders, all of Indianapolis,
and their offers were: Thomas D.
Sheerin company, $606; Fletcher
Savings and Trust Company, $777.77;
the Fletcher American bank, $755.60;
J. F. Wild and company, $803.75;
Meyer-Kiser bank, $707.75.

commissioners. A hearing was con-
found for the petitioners.

bond issue was filed. The material used will be crushed gravel.

Funeral services for Calvin Coolidge
back pews heard it with misty eyes.
Dr. Kenneth Wells, pastor of the Edwards Congregational church, con-
dressed in black, preserved her com-
unrestrained. Dr. Wells paid to the
and a former spiritual adviser.

The congregation remained as Mrs.
Coolidge passed out on the arm of the president followed by their son
presidential party left at 10:30 a. m.

One of Distinct Advantages to Rush

Their Camp Will Open August 4 to 18—Brief Outline of High Spots
of Trip

One of the distinct advantages of
groups will go at different times and
enjoy the same advantages while
there.

The younger group will be made up
from boys about nine to twelve or
go on Monday August 4 and will
camps.

in addition to this outline.

at about 5:00 a. m. Arrive at Turkey Run at about noon. Unpack and straighten up. Supper at camp.

the most beautiful canon in the Park.

Hollow, a very spectacular canon.

the Coal Mine.

sy Gulch with flashlights.

to the Little Old Log Church.

in the solid rock by the early pioneers. Visit the old hermit's home.

Wednesday—Shades of Death,

Game Preserve with many animals.

camps. The first Pioneer Cabin.

Saturday—Buzzards Nest and Indian Lookout. Party at night. Games,
dancing and music. Refreshments.

night.

about 8:30 a. m. Overland trip home.
This same outline will be used in
both camps.

Charles, four-year-old son of Mr.
survived by his parents, a twin sister, Maxine and another brother, Eu-
half brothers also survive. Funeral
will be made in the cemetery at Brookville.

Democratic Ticket of Davis and Bry-

Would Not Accept Nomination for

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

dorf Hotel, New York, July 10—John
W. Davis of West Virginia for president and Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska for vice president.

the conservative east with the pro-
political history at 2:25 a. m. today.

governor was forced by a rotorie of
ballot, furnishing a curious anti-clim-
late yesterday afternoon.

after the delegates had been twice
dates for the vice presidency.

first choice, formally refused the
party in the senate. Edwin T. Mere-
Davis on the ground that he was the
conservative to appeal to the agricultural west.

from Madison Square Garden.

Chairman Cordell Hull, Tom Taggart, Senator Pat Harrison and other
leaders, bare-headed, rushed back to
the Garden to get Bryan's acceptance.
place him in nomination and Harry Fleaharty was rounded up to name
him. Bryan himself told his sponsor
to make the speech "short and snap-
loting began.

Worn out by two weeks of bickering and three hours of oratory during the evening, hundreds of the de-
vast crowd that jammed the galleries
to give Governor Al Smith a thunderous ovation and Davis a cordial welcome.

sharp in the huge hall.

the tally clerks.

choice.

After casting half of the Illinois vote for Mayor Hyman of New York
as a compliment, George E. Brennan
two thirds. He was followed by Franklin D. Roosevelt who cast New York's 90 votes solidly for Bryan.

Then Mayor Frank Hague of Jer-

the soldier labor crowd, aided by a rowdy bunch the police finally ejected from the hall, kept up a constant cry for Berry. Although Col. Alvin Crawley former commander of the
Texas, he finished with 16 votes.

Bennett Clark, son of the late
Champ Clark of Missouri, had a total
of South Carolina 18. Others who stuck to the end were Governor Glynn

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—Bible thoughts memorized will grow wise turnings in after years.

God loves the good.—Truly
God is good to Israel, even to
Psalm 73:1.
Prayer:—O Lord, purge us with hyssop and we shall be clean for blessed are the pure in heart; they shall see God.

On Being Thrifty

use of money and material possessions.

constitute all there is to thrift.

health thrift—is just as essential.

men and women of the United States lose the labor of one million
days annually.

gained annually through immigration.

working days the United States department of agriculture estimates are lost annually through industrial accidents.

Statisticians have not been able to check the dollars lost in wages annually because of sickness, but inasmuch as the wage loss from industrial accidents exceeds $1,000,000, 000, the financial loss from sickness must be far in excess of that sum.

Even health thrift is related to financial thrift, because sickness causes loss of time, which is worth money.

carelessness. Guard the reservoir of your physical strength as you would your home or your life's savings.

Men of strong vitality are tempted to overdo because they are by nature energetic. An outstanding American recently boasted that he works almost continually, with the exception of about four hours each night when he sleeps.

There can be nothing but admiration for a man of this sort, but sooner or later nature will refuse to be abused. Collapse is inevitable and the man's usefulness will be over years before it would have been, had he observed temperate habits.

When you think of thrift, think in terms of health as well as wealth, because there can be no real thrift that does not include care of the health.

Pushing Ahead

It is an anomaly of American life that success is accepted as commonplace, while sensational failure is described in all of its sensational details.

When the 'round-the-world' army aviators started to encircle the globe, they met with the opposition of the elements which they could not overcome and which caused the commander to turn back.

But because of the smoothness with which the intrepid conquerors of the air are progressing toward their goal, we seldom ever see their names in print.

Yet they are overcoming almost insurmountable difficulties every day.
With persistency and unflinching courage, they are pushing ahead.

made their way half way around the earth without serious accident of any kind.

The flight may be robbed of its alluring sensationalism, but the steadfast persistence of the fliers challenges the admiration of everybody, especially American citizens, because they represent the crusading spirit of our ancestors, whose
cradle of liberty in the western hemisphere.

Saturday, July 10, 1909

Frank Wilson received a cablegram
this morning from his daughter Aileen, who together with Miss Mattie B.
Lacy, a teacher in Manual Training High school in Indianapolis, left recently for a tour of Europe. The "underwater" message was sent from Liverpool.

Dr. V. W. Tavis will preach in the morning at St. Paul's M. E. church and union services will be held at this church in the evening. No other service will be held in the church until the decorators have finished with their work.

Wardner Wyatt, who is suffering
slightly improved today.

Connersville is determined on having some pretty girls to take up their abode there that they might stop the general exodus of Connersville swains
parlor amusements. A few days ago an account was given of the establishment of a "beauty factory." Now comes a better idea. A classical school for girls will be launched near Con-nersville by Eastern Women who have leased the beautiful Elmhurst farm, on the south edge of the city.

The Palace motion picture theatre has changed hands, the deal being consummated yesterday. Harry Merideth, who started the place last fall, sold it to C. E. Clifford of Fayette county.

Miss May Sweetman, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Sexton sanitarium recently, has been removed to her home in West First street and is improving.

Pearl Taylor, who was injured Wednesday by a falling refrigerator, is recovering and will be able to be up in a few days. He will not lose the use of his lower limbs as was at first thought.

people enjoyed a picnic along the banks of Whitewater yesterday: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holden, Rev. Hetrick and family, Mrs.
Liford Stiers, Ben Staples and Leslie McCauley.

Mrs. Link Gary entertained the Bridge club at her home in North Harrison street yesterday.

Scott Conde, who has been working in a restaurant at Newcastle, has resigned his position and returned to his home in this city yesterday.

Wayne Wellman went to Richmond
today to get a new piece for his threshing machine. This is the twenty-ninth year that Mr. Wellman has threshed in the same company.

Dr. Waltemire of Manilla contemplates a short course at a Racine, Wis., college of surgery.

Lewis Hiner returned last night

Rhode Island 15; Governor Silser, New Jersey 8; former Ambassador Gerard 10; Mayor Hylan 6; Newton D Baker 7; Senator Pitman, Nevada 6; Jonathan M. Davis, Kansas, 5.

Several times before the necessary
made to nominate Bryan by acclamation. These suggestions were greeted by hoos and hisses from the Berry supporters.

hall in bedlam for half an hour, Wm.
Jennings Bryan, sitting as a delegate from Florida, voted for his brother's nomination.

The total vote was announced in
greeted by an outburst of applause,
followed by boos, hisses and cat
could be read or the motion to adjourn the convention put.

Barkley announced that Permanent Chairman Walsh was to make the formal notification speech to Davis and Temporary Chairman Harrison would notify Bryan.

Home" and the crowd trickled out into the night. The convention was ended.

WHEN the Little One arrives, you
can have that moment more free
imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend," Mrs. C. J.
Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:
"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used "Mother's Friend" and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about
Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did.
Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 3A-75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book
mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

Fires occur in spite of precautions. Property is destroyed in spite of the fire fighters' best efforts. But there is no "in spite of" where dependable insurance is concerned. The value of the property can be saved.

loss through fire. Can you afford to be without it?

Announcement

It has certainly been most gratifying to have so many friends and customers call during the past week. No doubt more would have been here, were it possible for everyone in Rush County and vicinity, and we will appreciate your visit, and acquaint yourself with the new management of an old store.

Our policy is to handle only dependable merchandise, which must give complete satisfaction. This, combined with courtesy and personal interest in each customer, will surely make your visits to this store pleasant, and well worth while.

Our Special Order Department will take care of the wants of the most fastidious dresser. Competent tailor to take your measure.

We hope you will accept our invitation, and pay us a call,

Clinton, Wisconsin.—"My daughter was in a very run-down condition, and was irritable, and would cry at every little thing she was so weak and nervous. As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped me when I was a girl I gave it to her to build her up, and the results were all that we could wish for. I wish that every mother with growing girls would try it for these troubles girls often have. I had taken it myself before my girl was born, and she was one of the nicest babies any one could wish to have. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to women and girls and cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs. I. A. HOLFORD, Box 48, Clinton, Wisconsin.

Mother's can depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve their daughters of those troubles they so often have. They know from experience the value of the Vegetable Compound in the treatment of these complaints and many, like Mrs. Holford, give it to their daughters.

We are still here and kicking. Just because the street is torn up out in front isn't any reason for you to think that we have gone out of business. The sidewalk is still intact.

And say—we still make that good salt rising bread and delicious pastries. If you don't believe it, just come around and see for yourself.

Walter P. Chrysler Says—

There is little or nothing in the ordinary four by which to measure Maxwell riding and driving results of today.

Vibration literally ceases to exist, so far as those in the car are concerned. The car rides with the ease of one twice as heavy.

Coffield

Just one big, round copper tub that rocks back and forth, perfectly balanced within a wonderfully designed frame.

There is nothing to oil—for the Coffield has self-lubricating, rust-proof bearings. With a Coffield, no surface oil can possibly streak your clothes.

There isn't even anything to clean. The inside of the tub cleans itself by its own water action.

What every woman needs is a clothes washer that will force suds through the clothes so vigorously that they will be really clean with the least effort in the shortest time—and yet without anything in the tub that will rub and wear them.

This has been accomplished in the Coffield. The way its forceful suds action leaves every piece sweet and clean is a delight.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 10—Unless a change is made in the Jockey Club rules, this may be the last season that Earl Sande, justly popular rider for the Rameocas Stables, will be seen in action on the American turf.

It is to be hoped that some change will be made, for the tall youngster is the greatest jockey produced in this country—not excepting the great Tod Sloan—and it would be a shame to lose him.

The trouble is that Sande has great difficulty in making the low weight required of riders on our turf. Earl has to take Turkish baths and undergo all sorts of nerve racking and often physically weakening exercise and torture to get down to the 116 pounds so often required of him.

Sande would not quit riding if he had to give it up over here. He is the recipient of more flattering offers from the other side, especially from England, where they want him to ride. The scale of weights in the British Isles and on the Continent is considerably higher than here, and Sande would undoubtedly win much fame in Europe.

The former South Dakota cowboy has already shown that he can give Steve Donoghue, who, until this year, was England's premier jockey, cards and spades and beat him riding any day in the week.

Some say it is Mrs. Sande who is raising the chief objection to Earl's continuing to ride here. She believes it is injuring his health to constantly subject him to the severe strain of taking off weight.

Of course, there will be many races in this country at weights suited to the Rameocas Stables' star rider, but riding but once in a while would rob Sande of the "feel" of the game and deprive him of the popularity he has so justly earned.

Aside from his ability to boot home winners, young Sande is distinguished—and the word is used advisedly—for his gentlemanly manner and good sportsmanship. Among men, he is stewards, owners, trainers, or riders, who have brought credit to the American turf, Sande ranks high.

This tow-headed lad rode his first winner seven years ago, down in New Orleans, and has been kicking them home ever since. There are lots of race fans who back Earl, not his mount. And they're right often, for they're wrong.

One of those who would be sorriest to see Sande leave is Sam C. Hildreth, trainer and part owner of the Rameocas outfit. Much of the credit for Zev's great year in 1923, and for the big purses the stable has been acquiring of late, goes to Sande.

American riders, especially Sloan, Frankie O'Neill, Everett Hayes and Frank Keogh, have been tremendously successful on European turf. Sande is considered their peer. He should turn out one of the most successful riders of all time, if he goes.

The Red Sox won both ends of a double-header from St. Louis 5-4 and 5-0, but couldn't get out of seventh place.

Cleveland beat Baugartner and Rommel and took both games of their double bill with the A's 3-1 and 6-3. The league leading Senators increased their advantage over the Yanks to a game and a half by

The significance of Du Maurier's "Trilby" as one of the greatest romances of all time prompted keen anticipation on the part of this reviewer, when it was made known that Richard Walton Tully, himself perhaps the foremost of our contemporary playwright-producers, had dedicated himself to the task of immortalizing it on the screen as a First National attraction. Thus it was that we visited the Castle last evening, prepared to witness a masterly production.

We were not disappointed. Almost at the outset we realized that "Trilby" had been brought to life, its fascinating characters made real. A Trilby adorable in form and feature, adorable in the odd contradictions of her nature, stood before us. A Sven-gall who coincided with our mental image, that sinister vagabond musician-mesmerist, lon since deftly planted in the memory by Du Maurier's word paintings, wove his spells—not only on the heroine, we opine, but on spectators as well. Here is finished artistry. A "Little Billie" whose sensitiveness vibrated from the screen; a bluff Tully, a lovable Laird—and so it goes through the gamut of characters—realism! "Trilby" is a romantic story which has charmed readers for a decade. It was, in the early nineties, not one of the "six best sellers", but the one best—it was a farore, a sensation. While the younger generation may be less familiar with it, we wonder if they will not, for that reason, be more firmly gripped by its suspense, its change of moods, its altogether unsuspected ending. We refrain from a sketch of the plot for that reason, but commend the piece equally to those who have read the novel and those who

"Men", Pola Negri's new Paramount picture, written and directed by the Russian producer, Dimitri Buchowetzki, the man who made "Peter the Great," was shown for the first time at the Princess Theatre yesterday. It's a great dramatic story of modern France, a tale of love and regeneration.

Pola plays the role of "Cleo", waitress in a shore front cafe in Marseilles. And what a role it is! Here's the Pola of the old European productions, the Pola of "Passion" and the rest, Pola in a picture that is going to make the screen world sit up and take notice—take a new interest in life. Here's Pola in her greatest role in a story with a happy ending.

Good as was "Shadows of Paris" and the other American made Negri pictures, they don't even begin to compare with "Men". Paramount calms Buchowetzki wrote the story some time ago, ten years to be exact, with Pola Negri in mind for the starring role and that time after time the occasion presented itself to picture the story with another star. But Buchowetzki waited.

Robert Frazer has the leading man's role opposite the star. Robert Edson and Joseph Swickard also have important parts. Others in the strong supporting cast of the production include Monti Collins, Gino Corrado and Edgar Norton. Paul Bern, who wrote the scenario for Ernst Lubitsch's "The Marriage Circle," made the adaptation. Alvin Wkeyoff handled the photography.

By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

"For several years I had suffered with indigestion, and a year ago I developed a very severe attack. I was forced to go to bed and after three days of intense suffering we called a chiropractor, who gave me great relief. The following day I was able to go to his office and take another adjustment, continuing until I had completed a full course. I have not had an attack of indigestion since, and my general health is greatly improved, especially my nervous system." —M. Shattuck, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2029-A.
